We Gather to Prepare Our Hearts to Meet Our Lord

Prelude Welcome

All Saints Day is one of those moments where we celebrate and remember those who have made the journey or who have taken the next step. We remember them because they are still a part of us, shaping us, mentoring us – maybe not in a direct way, but in a real way.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Loving God, Loving Our Neighbors

Based on Mark 12:28-34

Safiyah Fosua, Africana Worship Book for Year B, Valerie Bridgeman Davis and Safiyah Fosua, eds., (Discipleship Resources, 2007),

We are people of God, created to love

We will love the Lord our God with heart, soul, mind, and strength.

We are people of God, determined to love.

We will love our neighbors and treat them as we would be treated.

We love neither from a sense of obligation nor to gain popularity or favor.

We choose to love both the lovely and the unlovable because love imitates God's nature.

All: For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself"

OPENING PRAYER: ALL SAINTS

From Seasons of the Spirit: All Saints Day—Year A, published by WoodLake Publishing

In all our weakness and strength, with our youth-filled spirits and aging bodies,

we come to be your people, O God.

Strong in faith and eager with questions, singing our praise and whispering our prayers,

we come to be your people, O God.

Filled with saintly determination yet mindful of our human limitations,

we come to be your people, O God.

Made strong in your endless love for us, we know ourselves to be yours and

we come to be your people, O God.
May we truly become your people today.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

B. David Hostetter, Prayers for the Seasons on God's People: Worship Aids for the Revised Common Lectionary, Year B (Abingdon, 1999), 203-204.

Good and great God, we come to you through Jesus Christ who intercedes for us sinners. We confess our sins, seeking forgiveness not only that we may be at peace with you, but also that we may pray for others. We are ashamed that our prayers are often as self-centered as our lives. Excuse our disordered priorities as we seek to change and reorder our lives according to the teaching and spirit of Jesus Christ you Son, our Lord. Amen.

DECLARATION OF PARDON

Friends, hear the good news! God has chosen you to be saved through sanctification by the Spirit.

We are saved by the Spirit through belief in the truth in Christ.

Friends, believe the good news!

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Rise up, O saints of God!
Have done with lesser things;
Give heart and soul and mind and strength
To serve the King of kings.

Rise up, O saints of God!
The kingdom tarries long;
Bring in the day of Christlike love
And end the night of wrong.

Rise up, O saints of God!
The church for you doth wait,
her strength unequal to her task;
rise up, and make her great.

Lift high the cross of Christ!
Tread where his feet have trod;
Led onward by the Son of Man,
Rise up, O saints of God!

We Hear God's Word
Gospel Reading..... Mark 12:28-34 (NRSV)

The First Commandment

28 One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, he asked him, "Which commandment is the first of all?" 29 Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; 30 you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' 31 The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." 32 Then the scribe said to him, "You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that 'he is one, and besides him there is no other'; 33 and 'to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,' and 'to love one's neighbor as oneself,'—this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." 34 When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." After that no one dared to ask him any question.

O for a thousand tongues to sing
my great Redeemer's praise,
the glories of my God and King,
the triumphs of his grace!

My gracious Master and my God, assist me to proclaim,
to spread through all the earth abroad
the honors of thy name.

Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
that bids our sorrows cease;
'tis music in the sinner's ears,
'tis life, and health, and peace.

Honoring of our Saints

Timeless God, we thank you for all those before us who have kept the faith to the end. We thank you for brave souls of deathless fame, and also for those whose names are remembered only by you. Give us wisdom to understand your will, and courage to live as your people in this day; through the grace of Jesus Christ.

The Great Thanksgiving for All Saints

The pastor stands behind the Lord's table.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Father Almighty,

Creator of heaven and earth:

God of Abraham and Sarah,

God of Miriam and Moses,

God of Joshua and Deborah,

God of Ruth and David,

God of the priests and the prophets,

God of Mary and Joseph,

God of the apostles and the martyrs,

God of our mothers and our fathers,

God of our children to all generations.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven,

we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ.

By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection

you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said:

"Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.

Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said:

"Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.

Renew our communion with all your saints, especially those whom we named before you—

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, strengthen us to run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the Pioneer and Perfecter of our faith.
By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at his heavenly banquet.
Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty Father (God), now and forever. Amen.

PRAYER OF INTERCESSION

(inspired by Deuteronomy 6:1-9, Mark 12:28-34)

Our prayer today is for all who are victims of cruel laws and petty laws, those who're subjected to prejudice denied opportunities, excluded, pushed to margins.
The Lord our God is one:

We will love with all our heart, all our soul, all our strength.

Our prayer today is for all those who're betrayed, who don't know loyalty, who fear to trust, or to love,
and who don't realize that they're already loved by you.
The Lord our God is one:

We will love with all our heart, all our soul, all our strength.

Our prayer today is for the landless and homeless,
the refugee and evicted,
those who find themselves in foreign places and strange places.
The Lord our God is one:

We will love with all our heart, all our soul, all our strength.

Our prayer today is for the overworked and the underpaid, for those in dangerous work and those in compassionate work, for those who long to work but are denied the opportunity
The Lord our God is one:

We will love with all our heart, all our soul, all our strength.

Our prayer today is for the Church, for all the branches of the vine including this one we gather as part of, today:
body of Christ, people of Christ,
for whom the Lord our God is one:

We will love with all our heart, all our soul, all our strength.

Our prayer today is for the creation gifts,
this earth in all its mighty wonder, yet tender fragility, the gifts of life and resources to treasure.

The Lord our God is one:

We will love with all our heart, all our soul, all our strength.

Our prayer today is for those who lie close to our hearts those whom we worry about, those whom we miss, those who carry disproportionate burdens at this time ...

The Lord our God is one:

We will love with all our heart, all our soul, all our strength.

The Lord our God is one:

SENDING FORTH:

Faithful God, over all circumstances and creation, without whom hope would be but a mere fantasy, thank you for continuing your work of redemption. Grant us the assurance that is founded upon the bedrock of hope in your never-failing love. As we remember the saints who were a light to us, help us to be a light to others by dwelling in hope that comes from you. Amen.
