For on this day in the city of David our Savior was born!

*What emotions stir your heart as your eyes
draw you into this moment?*

Where do your thoughts take you?

*Why did these people from all walks of life
all gather together?*

There was but one reason the shepherds left their work behind and the wisemen walked away from their studies. There was but one reason each put aside their wants, needs, and routines in life. There was but one reason they chose to come to Bethlehem.

TO WORSHIP HIM!

We have entered the season of preparation and celebration. Yet our culture has diverted our attention to be more engaged in self-promotion and social priorities. Friends, why do we not gather to worship any longer? This is a question that has been weighing heavy not only on my soul but on many who gather and see the empty pews. I know there are countless loving and caring Christians in our communities who truly love God, follow His teachings and who have invited Him into their homes and family life. Yet have slowly and unintentionally looked past His invitation to come into His home and worship Him. Friends this is not about finger pointing or judgement this is a call to self-examination. Bringing ideas forth of how we can all find our way back together and once again gathering in His name to Worship. Racine UMC is the heartbeat of Jesus Christ in Racine. The strength and reverberation of that beat is determined by each of us. You are important! You are loved! You are welcomed!

Will you come home this year for Christmas?

Minnesota Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

November 05, 2021

The United Methodist Council of Bishops on Friday, Nov. 5 approved a plan for episcopal oversight in the North Central Jurisdiction that includes Bishop David Bard continuing to serve as interim bishop for the Minnesota Conference in 2022. He will also continue to serve as resident bishop for the Michigan Conference. Here is the press release the North Central Jurisdiction College of Bishops sent out:

At this morning's meeting of the Council of Bishops of The United Methodist, the Council approved a plan submitted by the North Central Jurisdiction College of Bishops to extend the current coverage of episcopal areas in the jurisdiction. Under the agreement, the current plan will continue until new episcopal elections within the jurisdiction are held, and the Jurisdictional Committee on the Episcopacy makes new assignments, or the NCJ College proposes to the Council of Bishops another plan for episcopal coverage within the jurisdiction. The previous agreement approved by the Council of Bishops was set to expire on December 31, 2021.

The plan was offered following consultation with the North Central Jurisdiction Committee on the Episcopacy and extends the episcopal oversight of the Northern Illinois Conference by Bishop John Hopkins and of the Dakotas/Minnesota Area by Bishop Laurie Haller and Bishop David Bard. Bishop Haller will continue to assume primary supervisory responsibility for the Dakotas Conference, and Bishop Bard will offer primary supervisory responsibility for the Minnesota Conference. As approved by the Council, this plan provides maximum flexibility to the jurisdiction, allowing the jurisdiction, if needed, to submit a new proposal at any time.

The regular session of the jurisdictional conference is scheduled for November 2022.
