OPEN HEARTS. OPEN MINDS. OPEN DOORS.

Pastors' notes...

Autumn is a wonderful time to observe nature. As I watch the swirling leaves stirred by the wind, I am reminded that they display an important lesson for all of us to follow suit in a way. Just as the trees don't stubbornly hold on to their dead leaves, so we shouldn't hold on to any unnecessary weight in our lives. When we long to enter a new season, the old can easily inhibit the new if we allow it. God's Word reminds us to:

Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

Ephesians 4:31,32 (NIV)

To get rid of negativity in our lives, we must first identify it. How can we do this?

- » By reading God's Word.
- » By allowing His Spirit to show us the necessary heart changes we need.
- » By being willing to shun practices such as bitterness and anger.
- » By asking God to help us let go of the guilt from the past.

Oh how the Lord longs to empower and strengthen us for the new season ahead! If we're not sure of the issues detaining a kind and compassionate spirit, He will show us when we ask. And if guilt from the past is preventing this beautiful new season, we have His promises like this one to remember:

Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.

Isaiah 43:18,19 (NIV)

What are you holding on to that is preventing a freshness to the season ahead? Could it be that the decayed leaves are piling up and your heart needs to discard them for good? If so, why not reach out to the Lord in prayer? He longs to hear from you. Ask Him to shine light on any thoughts, circumstances, habits or other "decayed leaves" you might be clinging to. As you watch the leaves fall this season, my prayer is that you are reminded to let go of anything that would hinder a fresh relationship with God.

September Worship Schedule

14th Sunday After Pentecost

Communion Sunday

Knowing God and making a declaration of faith is an important part of the journey of faith. But then what usually follows an encounter with God is an acute and often painful awareness of self. Moses, following his father-in-law's sheep in the wilderness, far away from a shady past, stumbles across a God who calls him to a mission of liberation. One of his many objections is that he doesn't know who this God is. "Tell me your name," he asks. Who are you, so that I can answer when they ask who sent me." But alongside that question is a realization that he does not measure up to this ideal or to this calling. "Who am I," Moses asks again and again in an attempt to crawl out from under this call. Our awareness of self is an important element of the journey. But like our understanding of who God is, our understanding of ourselves changes and grows with time.

15th Sunday of Pentecost

Guest Speaker Leading

"Blessing of the Backpacks"

As we continue our journey of faith, the question today is this: are we called to look for signs of God's presence or are we called to be a sign of God's presence? The answer, as you might expect, is yes! We are the ones who are trying to be tuned into God's wavelength, listening to God's broadcast. Therefore, we must look for the signs that God is at work in and around us always. Today let our prayer time not just call for God to act around us, but to give thanks for the activity that is already happening. Remember, we are more than passive observers. We are active presenters, active signs of God's presence in the world. Today let us gather to once again commit ourselves to presenting the goodness of God in the world around us each day.

16th Sunday of Pentecost

September 17, 2023

Pastor Jeremy Girard Leading

"Presentation of Bible to Macie Faro our 3rd grade student"

Today we take a look at Peter's question. "How many times must we forgive?" This is one of those questions that we know how we're supposed to answer, but it is harder to do in practice than in theory. Today we gather to hear the story from Matthew where Jesus tells Peter that we forgive 77 times, or 70 times 7, or in fact, we just keep forgiving, this is a familiar text for many of us and each time we hear it we smile and nod and clap our hands. "Of course," we think, "we worship a forgiving God, and we know we need God's forgiveness over and over again." But then we realize that this means we also must be forgiving of those who offend us, again and again, perhaps. And then we wonder if that's even possible.

17th Sunday of Pentecost

September 24, 2023

Pastor Bridget Leading

God provides. It seems clear that this is one of the messages from our texts this week. But it should also be clear that God provides for our needs in unusual and sometimes confusing ways. Whether it is manna and quail in the desert or a surprisingly generous but perhaps somewhat unfair payment for labor, God provides in ways that give us pause and, hopefully, makes us think. When we look at the stories written as well as our own lives, we see that God works in partnership to meet needs. Effort is required to gather the manna that forms each morning and to capture the quail that roost in the evening. Labor in the vineyard is a part of the covenant made with God as we claim the joy of belonging to the kin-dom. We aren't passive recipients of God's grace but must be engaged in the process of discovery and acceptance.

God provides - we gather, and we share.
